

Our Deacon
Candidates

Joanne Coolbaugh resides in Sugarloaf and is a self-employed baker. She and her husband, William (Bill) have been married for 44 years and have two children still at home, Robbie and Michaela. Joanne is involved in teaching, women's ministry and counseling.

Gerard (Jerry) O'Grodnick resides in Tamaqua and is employed by the McAdoo Streets Department. He and his wife, Alyssa, have been married for five years and have a daughter, Nora. Jerry has been involved in Youth and Young Adult ministries, has served in the sound booth and is involved in church planting.

Kevin St. George resides in McAdoo and is employed as an Account Manager for Kaman Industrial Technologies. He and his wife, Lynn, have been married for 29 years, and have three children, Cory Place, Kyle Place and Kevin, II. He serves on our Finance Team, 2020 Vision Construction team and has been a deacon here for two years.

Alan Williams, Sr. resides in Hazleton and is self-employed. He is retired from the US Army. His children's names are Tara, Susan, Taylor and Alan, Jr. Alan is involved in Children's Ministries, Audio/Visual and participates in Missions trips. He has served on our deacon board for two years.

Brad Witmer resides in Zion Grove and is employed as a Diesel Mechanic for Penske Truck Leasing. He and his wife, Carissa have been married 11 years, and have three children, Jaylan, Dalia and Isayah. Brad has served in the sound booth, Royal Rangers, Usher ministry, and currently is a small group leader.